

A Place So Perfect

Words & music
J N MacNeill

Unaccompanied version; expression & rest lengths ad lib

That you'd a-gree to spend some time with me was more than I had ev-er dared to 8 dream. You came with me, the cat that got the cream, or so I deep-ly
16 hoped that I would be. But would it cross the line_____ if I should scheme 23 to cause a touch that turns to an em -brace? I made a move, and 29 tried to___ read your face. You played a-long with eyes that did not gleam. One 36 sun - ny af - ter - noon you found a place so per-fect, sec-ret, where___ we two could 42 lie and gaze at hill and sea and sky;___ my height-ened feel-ings,
49 urg-ent; act-ions, full of grace. You told me want
57 of warm car - ess___ was why you chose___ a-against my wish
63 to say good - bye. Good - bye.